Psychotherapist | Marriage Counselor | Trainer | Speaker

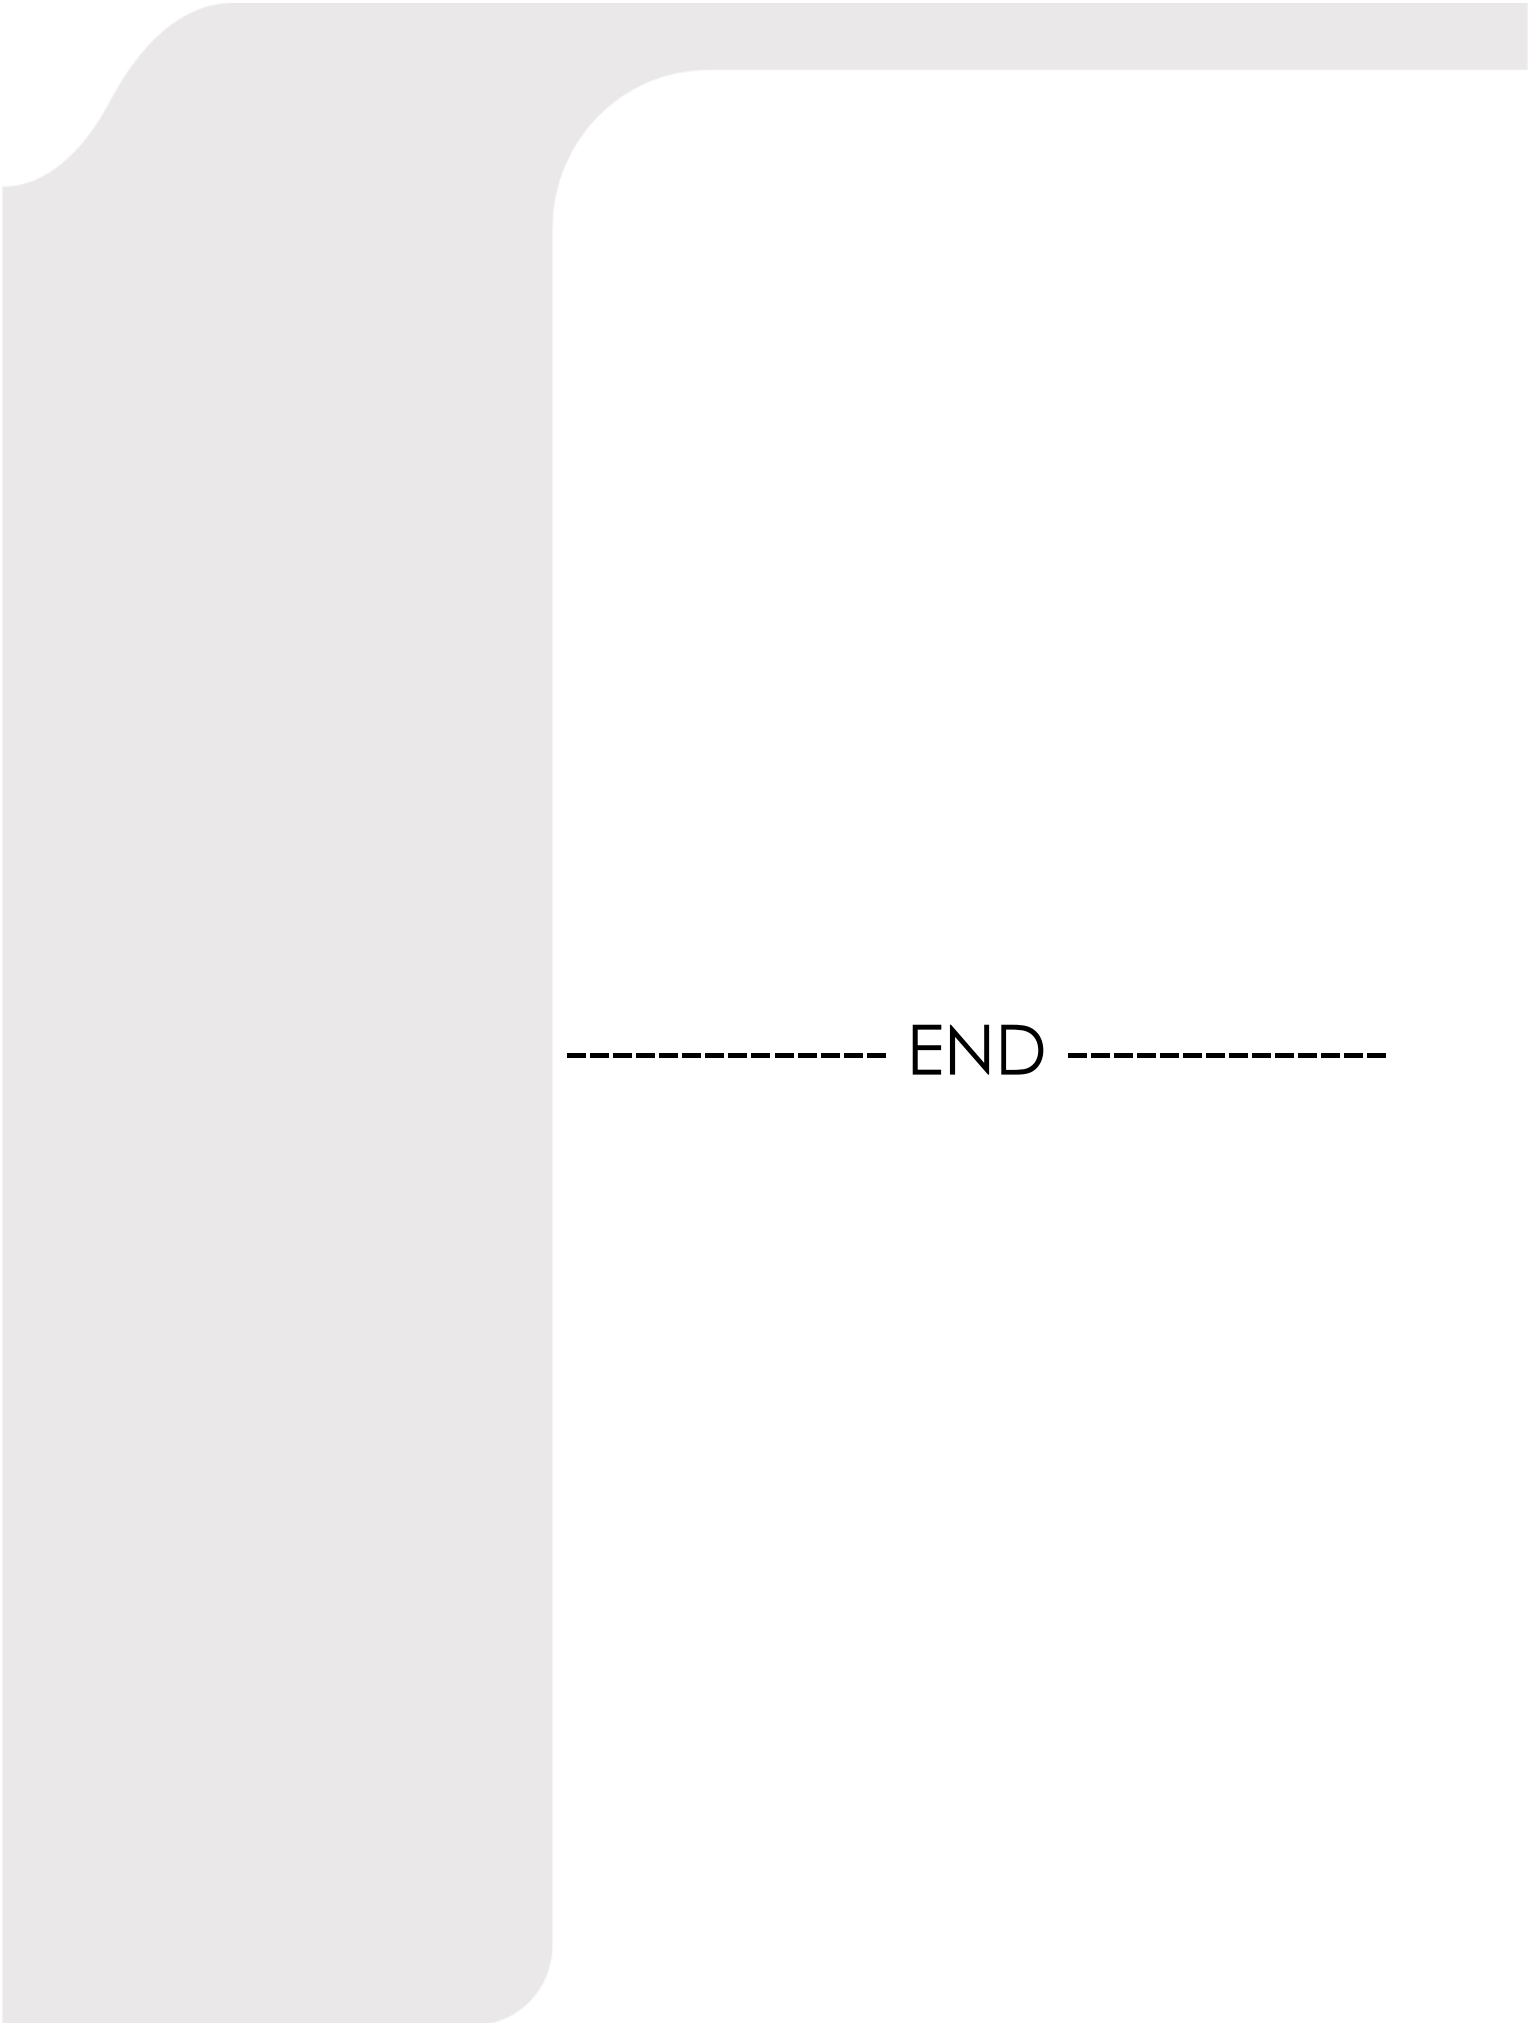

Temple Obike is a certified Life, Marriage and Family Therapist, counselor, author and keynote speaker focused on everyday habits, vices, emotions and their effect on individuals, families, marriages and the nation at large. He's happily married to his primary school sweetheart and their union has been blessed with four amazing children who he's very proud of. His first degree was in Cell Biology and Genetics with a Masters in IT Business. He has a Psychotherapy certification from the Karen Wells Institute in the US, a professional counseling certificate from the Institute of Counseling Nigeria and a John Maxwell Leadership Programme Certification in sight by the end of 2022.

He started counseling un-officially in 2008 advising youth groups in poverty-ravaged Lagos neighborhoods ridden by teenage drug & sex abuse under the Grassroots and Shoots initiative. Over the past 4 years of running his private practice (Temple's Counsel & Mind Academy), he's gradually become a trusted community, relationship, marriage, addiction recovery and psychotherapy brand in Nigeria and across Africa. Temple also owns an advertising agency and has worked with key notable brands as MTN, Etisalat, Infinix, Arsenal FC, Chromepay Africa, Coin Cola Asia and so much more.

His private practice has positively empowered over One Thousand individuals through live counseling and thousands through his online counseling, podcasts, free advisory services and materials. Over the past four years, he has been able to amass over 70,000 in- counseling/therapy minutes with his virtual and live sessions.

Readership of his articles also receive a growing number of visitors alongside subscriptions to his email newsletter at templeobike.com. His passion for empowering and uncovering the secrets to lifelong marriages and personal development led to his new book titled "Soul Bodega" available on amazon and across other online and traditional stores.
